

Hoarding Happens: Caring for Someone with Excessive Clutter

Are you worried about the health and wellbeing of a loved one who has a lot of clutter in their home?

Do you have questions about the harm and risks that could arise from an overly full home?

Would you like to know more about the Harm Reduction approach?

Would you like to know what community services may provide when they work with persons who excessive clutter in their home?

Would you like to ask questions about hoarding, supports, or consequences?

Community Services and Resources

- Learn about services that are available in Guelph and Wellington County to support your loved one
- Question and answer period with:
 - Fire Prevention Officers
 - Municipal Law & Property Standards Officers
 - Wellington County Housing Workers
 - Mental Health Clinicians (CMHA)
 - Family Health Team Outreach Workers
 - Community Paramedics
 - Home Care Coordinators (LHIN Home & Community Care)
 - Legal Clinic Representatives
 - Humane Society (OSPCA)

Panelists vary by event location

Tuesday June 18th 6:00 – 7:30 pm

Arthur Branch, Wellington County Library
110 Charles Street East, Arthur

Monday June 17th 6:30 – 8:00 pm

Emergency Services Centre
160 Clair Rd. W, Guelph

Please register everyone that will attend with you so that we can plan seating and refreshments accordingly

Register Online:

Guelph: <https://hoardinghappensguelph2019.eventbrite.ca>

Arthur: <https://hoardinghappensarthur2019.eventbrite.ca>

OR

Call the Wellington Guelph Hoarding Response Coordinator, Emily Gibson, at 519-836-2332 ext. 108, or email egibson@dunara.com with your full name and phone number.